COURSE DESCRIPTION

The workshop will describe the factors leading to divorce, the stages of the divorce adjustment process, and therapeutic interventions designed to help divorcing individuals cope during each stage. It will also describe resources available to divorcing individuals, and provide information about the effects of divorce on children. Each participant will be provided a copy of a professional journal article authored by the presenter that details material covered in the workshop. The publication includes a detailed reference section.

The presenter has 50 years of experience working with divorcing individuals and has conducted research studies of the divorce process. He is dual licensed as a marriage and family therapist and psychologist. He was commissioned by the governor of Iowa to conduct a statewide study of divorce and was a member of a state governance committee charged to rewrite Iowa family law to reform the legal divorce process. Dr. Joanning has also directed doctoral programs in couple and family therapy, and supervised family therapy clinics for 38 years. He has numerous research publications regarding couple, family, divorce, and sex therapy as well as the neurobiology of intimate human relationships. He has received awards and honors for his achievements and is an Emeritus Professor at Iowa State University. He is currently Co-Director of the Neurobiology of Relationships Research Program in the Department of Psychology at the University of South Alabama. He has a website devoted to his work and is available to consult with interested professionals: <https://www.neurobiologyofrelationships.org/>

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How can I take this Webinar?

This Webinar can be taken as a live Webinar.

Q: What do I have to do to complete the live Seminar/Webinar successfully?

To obtain the 6 contact hours associated with this course, the health professional will need to sign-in (by typing in the chat-box), attend the course online, and complete the program evaluation form and post-test electronically. At the end of the program, after all the evaluation and post-tests are accounted for, the health professional successfully completing the program will receive a statement of credit. This will take approximately 3 to 5 business days. This is an intermediate-level course.

Q: How long does it take to receive a Seminar/Webinar Completion Certificate?

At a live seminar, certificates are given out at the end of the seminar. With all other presentations (e.g., electronic), receipt of the certificate typically takes 3 to 5 days after all materials are submitted.

Q: How will I know that my profession qualifies for continuing education credit?

Please see the section marked Accreditation. All professions for which INR (Institute for Natural Resources) has approval are listed in the Accreditation section.

Q: What happens if I have technical difficulties watching or hearing a Webinar (in effect a live broadcast of a seminar)?

You will receive a voucher equal to the tuition paid. This voucher will be good for a future seminar or Webinar. The voucher is good for one year.

Q: My profession is not listed on the brochure. Is it possible to obtain continuing-education credit?

Possibly. Please contact INR's customer-service office at <info@inrseminars.com> or at 1-877 246-6336. The customer-service office can tell you if INR has approval for your profession.
